

For Immediate Release
26 March 2019

Finetiq Announces Gabriel Morey as Head of Client Solutions

Finetiq welcomes new addition to its team

Tokyo — 26 March 2019 — Finetiq announced and welcomed Gabriel Morey as Head of Client Solutions based in Tokyo. Gabriel will focus on expanding Finetiq’s global footprint and drive client engagements with a particular focus on blockchain clients.

In addition to his role at Finetiq, Gabriel is a Venture Partner at Alpha Omega Capital Partners, General partner at Stats Ventures as well as advising on numerous blockchain companies. Currently focusing on business development, investor relations and market strategy for digital assets across Asia and Europe. Having lived in Japan since 1999 he has developed an extensive network of partners, investors, family offices and influencers in the FinTech and Blockchain scene. Gabriel graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a Bachelor degree in International Business.

Maurizio Raffone, CEO at Finetiq, said “Finetiq is excited to bring Gabriel on board. Gabriel brings with him valuable experience in client engagement and developing solutions for customers in the digital space. I have personally known Gabriel for close to 15 years and greatly look forward to working with him”.

About Finetiq

Finetiq is a FinTech management consulting and business development firm operating primarily in Japan and Hong Kong. Finetiq's team of capital markets and technology veterans is focused on supporting stakeholders in the FinTech industry develop and implement highly effective business models across Asia.

###

For more information on Finetiq please see: www.finetiq.io